H. C. Hollins Says

A pawnbroker will loan you money on your diamonds or jewelry—amounting to one-third of their value. He will retain them as collateral and charge you interest at the rate of 24 per cent a year. A bank will loan you money charging you 6 per cent interest, and you retain possession of your property and its full use, remember that. Don't you think real estate is a pretty good investment? Mr. Hollins is in the real estate and insurance business, Phone 127.

People and Pleasant Events
